

THE REAL DEAL

Every single man you meet
Is here today and gone next week
They whisper words you long to hear
Then offer you another beer
They don't care how you really feel
But baby you're looking at
The real deal

You can tell all your friends
That this is where the circus ends
Soon your broken heart will be healed
I will love you so complete
My kiss will sweep you off your feet
You can finally stop playing the field
Cause baby you're looking at
The real deal

You've had your share of macho hype
From the Casanova Don Juan type
Now you looking for a gentle man
To steal your heart and take your hand
It's time to stop this Ferris wheel
Cause baby you're looking at
The real deal
